

Simpleway revolutionised public communication across the transportation industry by providing a unified information platform that processes real-time data provided directly by operators or external data sources and passes it on to passengers using various communication channels. This all in one hardware-neutral package, meaning our software works with any hardware, including your existing PA system and displays.

